MEMO ENDORSED

The Application is granted.

SO ORDERED:

Paul G. Gardephe, U.S.D.J.

Dated: July 1, 2020

Re: United States v. Raymond Parker, et. al.,
19 Cr. 789 (PGG) Defendant #20

Dear Judge Gardephe,

I am writing to request permission for Raymond Parker to travel to Virginia for a three-day family vacation. Specifically, I request that on Friday July 3, 2020, Mr. Parker be allowed to travel from his home in the District of New Jersey to Virginia Beach, VA, for a short family vacation in advance of the July 4th holiday. On the morning of Friday July 3, 2020 at approximately 5:00 a.m., Mr. Parker would leave his residence with his brother Michael Parker, his partner Nerlie Oscar, Ms. Oscar's 5 year-old child and Mr. Parker's 10 year-old child and travel to a rental home located at 315 20th Street, Virginia Beach, VA 23451. Mr. Parker and his family will return to the District of New Jersey sometime in the evening on Monday July 6, 2020.

I have discussed this request with the Government and Pretrial Services Officer Assistant Shawn Bostic, and they do not object to this request.

If the Court requires any more information, please do not hesitate to reach out to me or my office.

Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,
